

“DIALOGUE NIGHT” - 22.05.2008

THE MINISTRY OF EDUCATION AND CULTURE IN COOPERATION WITH THE ANNA LINDH EURO-MEDITERRANEAN FOUNDATION FOR THE DIALOGUE BETWEEN CULTURES NATIONAL NETWORK WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE EUROPEAN YEAR FOR INTERCULTURAL DIALOGUE 2008

The Ministry of Education and Culture as the National Coordination Unit in Cyprus of the European Year of Intercultural Dialogue 2008, supports the “Dialogue Night” to be held on the 22 May 2008 in the 37 countries of the European Union and Mediterranean. The “Dialogue Night” falls under the “1001 Actions for Dialogue” and is an initiative supported by the Anna Lindh Euro-Mediterranean Foundation for the Dialogue between Cultures within the framework of the European Year of Intercultural Dialogue 2008.

The Anna Lindh Euro-Mediterranean Foundation for the Dialogue between Cultures was established in 2005 with the decision of the Ministers of Foreign Affairs of the countries of the Euro-Mediterranean Cooperation Partnership with the aim of highlighting the common cultural heritage of the Euro-Mediterranean countries and people with the scope of promoting intercultural dialogue and cooperation. The Foundation is hosted in Alexandria and works as a network of networks in all 37 states which make it up. The whole network is currently made up of over 1000 organisations from countries of the European Union and the Mediterranean, including Cyprus.

“1001 Actions for Dialogue” includes a wide array of cultural activities, which will be implemented with the support of the Anna Lindh Euro-Mediterranean Foundation on the same day, 22 May 2008, in all 37 states who participate under the common network “Dialogue Night”. The concept of this “Night” is to provide publicity to intercultural activities and cooperation between the states that participate within the network in order to jump start dialogue and further promote intercultural dialogue within society. The outcomes of the parallel actions will be presented at the Ministerial meeting of the Ministers of Culture to be held in Athens at the end of May.

In Cyprus the “Dialogue Night” includes a wide array of activities (music, poetry, athletics, teleconferencing, treasure hunts and critical workshops and debates on racism) that are being organised by the cooperation of six organisations of the Anna Lindh Euro-Mediterranean Foundation Cyprus National Network and supported by the Ministry of Education and Culture. The activities are being held in Nicosia and Limassol and are under the auspices of the Minister of Education and Culture. They are all free to the public.

The aim of all the activities is to promote and create awareness amongst the wider public – in particular youth – of issues related to the significance of intercultural dialogue in our everyday life. Specifically the activities aim at furthering our skills at peaceful coexistence and intercultural cooperation between people from diverse ethnic and cultural backgrounds whilst parallel strive to increase our knowledge regarding our common cultural heritage.

- Culture Up your Life - CLOSED TO THE PUBLIC - provides the University of Nicosia students' the opportunity to present their views on 'Eliminating the cultural gap on campus'. Students from different cultural and ethnic backgrounds came together for a weekend in Omodos to identify and discuss problems related to the cultural gap that exists on campus, and recommend ways to bridge it. Having as a goal the improvement of relations among students coming from different backgrounds, the participants came up with numerous recommendations and an action plan that could positively affect University policies. This project's long-term goal is to eliminate the cultural gap on campus through the creation of a society within the university that will promote respect of cultural diversity. This event is open only to University of Nicosia students and staff.
